

E.R.I.C

The Educational. Resource. Information. Centre

I have had E.R.I.C for just over a year now. He was given to me as a sort of spy gadget from a mysterious man who never showed his face. E.R.I.C is my best friend. Well he is a laptop I suppose. He is an information finder and helps me improve my ict.

With his built web cam I can spy on people and see what they are up to.

Anyway back to the story. It was 2010 and I was sitting in the café down the road from where I live when E.R.I.C suddenly woke up. I had an emergency email from the Secret services. E.R.I.C read it out to me in his quirky robot voice. It Said.

“ Dear Eliza

we have an emergency here , the parents are having all the fun and us children cant do anything about it. Please help. I will be ready and waiting to conference with you when you are ready. We are in terrible danger from the adults, from the kids in secret services.

I was in so much shock I spilt all of tea onto the floor. I grabbed E.R.I.C and dashed out into the alleyway behind the café. I logged into rafiki. The communicating website that E.R.I.C had downloaded and popped up a conference to the kids. They explained everything and I knew my mission was set. They would meet me in the old run down park. All E.R.I.C and I had to do was stop the parents from ruining our lives and having all the fun. Not too much to ask was it!? We set out a map on E.R.I.Cs map building website and headed for the grand new opening of our town meeting. I snuck into the white house (downing street) and split up with E.R.I.C. He was going to find out everything about the “Adults have all the fun” program and I was going to get the plans. I found the meeting and snuck in under the giant table. I listened to every word. I popped my head up from under the table and saw E.R.I.C was disguised as the laptop that Gordon Brown was using.

He popped the memory stick into E.R.I.C and downloaded all the information we needed.

He held E.R.I.C up and shouted “No more KIDS!!!!” I jumped up and screamed “YOUR WRONG ITS NO MORE ADULTS!!!” at that moment E.R.I.C activated his jet pack and we flew through the window and landed next to the Secret services kids. We burnt the memory stick and got rid of that campaign!!!! That was a few weeks ago now. But it’s still pretty scary!!

I use E.R.I.C but not for spy stuff only HOMEWORK! We changed the world that day now everybody has fun! HOORAY
